

Position Title: Stormwater Specialist for the BBAC Stormwater Collaborative Initiative

Salary: $55,000-$65,000

Duties and Responsibilities: Help guide and assist five Buzzards Bay municipal public works departments implement a program to monitor stormwater discharges, and map stormwater collection systems contributing to those discharges. The objective is to assist municipalities identify potential illicit connections and to establish priorities for the treatment of stormwater contributing to shellfish bed and swimming beach closures, and other impairments.

Qualifications Required Understanding of the laws, regulations, policies, , and guidelines governing stormwater management in Massachusetts.

- Knowledge of federal and state stormwater permit requirements related to the implementation Municipal Separate Storm Sewer System (MS4) permit.
- Experience in water-quality monitoring and associated analytical techniques. Must have the ability to conduct field activities in a variety of locations under temperature extremes and adverse weather conditions. This work requires moderate physical activity.
- Understanding of Geographic Information System software and techniques.

Please send a resume and cover letter to: Buzzards Bay Action Committee, Fairhaven Town Hall, 40 Center Street, Fairhaven, MA 02719. Resumes are due by March 4, 2016.

The Buzzards Bay Action Committee is an equal opportunity employer.